FOREIGN BROADCAST INFORMATION SERVICE

Of Social Interest This Week

+LIBYAN-MALTESE RADIO -- In response to an immediate cable from the American Embassy in Valletta, Malta, FBIS initiated coverage of a new, joint Libyan-Maltese radio broadcasting from Malta. The radio began transmissions on 1 September, in English and Arabic. Summaries of the program's contents were filed to the American Embassy in Malta and the State Department Malta Desk, which has advised FBIS that there is high-level interest in the radio. The Embassy and the State Department have expressed appreciation to FBIS for its quick response to their request for coverage.

+SERVICE TO DDCI -- On Friday, 2 September, FBIS was queried by the DDCI's office on the availability of the 2 September PRAVDA interview with KGB head Chebrikov in which he revealed Soviet disruption of a sensitive U.S. intelligence collection operation. Within minutes of receiving the request, the Wire Service was able to respond with the text of the item, which the Press Monitoring Unit in London had monitored from satellite transmissions the day before and translated on a priority basis.
